Rules & Regulations

- Event area must be restored to its original set up once the event is over.
- Event coordinator will provide a list of all subcontractors (caterer, tents, production, ice, portalets, etc.) thirty days prior to the event. Event producer and sub-contractors must load out at end of event unless pre-arranged. Any items left will result in an additional day rental charge. The River Market Special Events Coordinator must approve any deviation from this policy in writing.
- When alcohol is being sold on site, the Alcohol Beverage Commission requires written permission. When alcohol is served on site, the City requires security to be present at the event. The number of officers varies based on attendance and type of event.
- Clients are not allowed to attach banners or decorations to trees.
- No permanent restroom facilities are provided in the History Pavilion area.
- Catering is open to all caterers. Certain guidelines exist depending on type of catering.
- Vehicle access is through the Riverfront Park Parking lot. No vehicle is allowed to drive off of the asphalt. Deliveries must be dollied down the path.
- No glass, confetti, or duct tape allowed in the park.
- The City of Little Rock Parks and Recreation Department retains the sole right to issue performance and special event permits in Parks facilities.
- The City reserves the right to proof any/all advertisements to insure proper compliance with intent and use of Parks and Recreations venues.
- Renters are responsible for providing tables and chairs if needed for the event.
- All events in Riverfront Park are rain or shine. No refunds or rescheduling allowed due to weather.
- All events must comply with local and state laws.
- When entertainment is in the History Pavilion, volumes must be moderate and controlled. Obscene language or gestures are discouraged on City property.
- Julius Breckling Riverfront Park closes at midnight.
